

I am highly in favor of allocating 5.250 to 5.400 MHz to the amateur service. This would not only relieve overcrowding on other HF bands such as 80 and 40 meters but would also fill a propagation gap to certain geographical areas when neither 80 or 40 meters will suffice.